FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Joint Statement from Rocky View County, CRCA and City of Chestermere

September 26, 2019 – Representatives from Rocky View County, the Chestermere Regional Community Association and City of Chestermere met to discuss Rocky View County Council's public safety concerns regarding the structural integrity of the Red Arena.

All three parties agree public safety cannot be compromised. There is a shared effort underway to resume regular operations as soon as possible.

At this time, the centre is set to still close at 5 p.m. tomorrow, Friday, September 27. Further information will be released as soon as it becomes available.

About:

The Chestermere Regional Community Association (CRCA) is a full-service, not for profit recreation centre in the City of Chestermere, Alberta. It's known as a daily destination point and gathering place for the community and attracts over 150,000+ visitors annually. The Centre is the primary recreational facility for thousands of community residents in the City of Chestermere, Rocky View County, and the Hamlets of Delacour, Dalroy, Conrich, Indus and Langdon.
