FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chestermere Recreation Centre to Remain Open

September 27, 2019 - In light of this morning's decision from Rocky View County Council, the Chestermere Regional Community Association (CRCA) is happy to announce the entire Chestermere Rec Centre will resume regular operations immediately. The CRCA will continue our mitigation plan of the Red Arena, which includes implementation of a snow load monitoring system, should a significant snowfall occur.

The CRCA would like to thank the community for their outpouring of support over the past two days.

We look forward to working with Rocky View County and the City of Chestermere to ensure our facility continues to operate safely and serve as a recreation destination for the residents of Chestermere and surrounding areas.

About:

The Chestermere Regional Community Association (CRCA) is a full-service, not for profit recreation centre in the City of Chestermere, Alberta. It's known as a daily destination point and gathering place for the community and attracts over 150,000+ visitors annually. The Centre is the primary recreational facility for thousands of community residents in the City of Chestermere, Rocky View County, and the Hamlets of Delacour, Dalroy, Conrich, Indus and Langdon.
